The Arabic word Fatiha has its roots in the root fara'a , which itself is derived from "fasha'a". "Fasha'a" means "to recite". Hence this word is used in the sense of recitation or to recite. The form that became the well-known "Fatiha", traces its roots to what is known as the "Mufassal" mode. The "Mufassal" mode is said to have come to us around twelve centuries ago, during the time of the Prophet, Muhammed. It was during his time that the Prophet set out his prayer times, which are called Taraweeh prayers. During these times he would recite his favorite poems called "tahreem", or at-Tahreem .
